STORIES FROM OUR CHINESE STUDENTS IN ROOM 7

Last Monday, we went to meet the Mayor of Hauraki. He welcomed us.

After that, we came to school in the big vans.

The school is beautiful.

We walked in a group to the hall. The hall is big.

The students sang songs. They welcomed us.

We met our buddies. Tamatea and Jaydan are my buddies.

We went to our classroom. It is Room 7.

After that, I felt very happy. I love the school.

On Sunday, we went to a movie in Thames. The movie was called "Incredible 2". Then we bought some popcorn to eat and water to drink.

The movie was very good. I liked the movie.

After the movie, we went shopping, then we went home and played a card game.

Finally we had dinner.

We had a good day.

On 29th July, we came to New Zealand in an aeroplane. It's terrific to travel to another place that is far from our home.

When we left the airport, we travelled down to Paeroa. It was Sunday.

We went to the school and met the family that we will be living with in New Zealand.

I am staying with Mr Robertson.

On Monday morning, we went to meet the Mayor and learned about the town that we are living in.

After that we excitingly went to the spectacular Miller Ave School in the vans.

Confidently we marched in a group to the hall then the friendly and kind school welcomed us. We joyfully met our buddies. They are funny and likeable.

Finally, we gladly went to our classroom.

I really enjoy being at school.
