SCHOOL SPEECH COMPETITION

All of our students have worked hard over the past few weeks to present a speech that has been judged in a class competition first. From these our finalists were selected and they presented their speeches yesterday in front of our school and family. A special thank you to our judge Mrs Maggie Read and assistants Mrs Munro and Mrs McMillan.

Congratulations to our Intermediate and Senior speech competition winners as follows:

Intermediate

1st	Shiah Taylor
2nd	Tayla Hogan
3rd equal	Joshua Blundell & Tayla Bennett

Senior

1st	Eternal Te Moananui
2nd	Tawio Emery
3rd	Callan Johnson

KELLY FROM ST JOHNS VISITS OUR SCHOOL

Last week Kelly from St Johns visited our school and taught all students what to do in an emergency.

1. Safety—make sure the scene is safe
2. Check for response—See if the person is responding to you
3. Airway—Lift chin so they can breathe easier
4. Roll onto their side and lift chin
5. Find a phone and press 1-1-1

Students also got the opportunity to learn how to wrap a bandage on an arm. Below are photos of Room 6 students enjoying their lesson.
