They carried a beautiful wreath in the parade, kindly made by Mrs Munro, then laid it during the ceremony at the War Memorial Hall. The girls represented our school with pride and we appreciate them giving up their time to do this.

Ruby Hodgson and Darion Williams-Oka are past students of Miller Ave School and are now head students at Paeroa College this year. They were guest speakers at the ANZAC ceremony and spoke so well. We are very proud of both Ruby and Darion.
