Nga mihi te whānau,

As the end of the term approaches and everyone is getting tired, we really need your help, parents, to support your child to get early nights and come to school prepared for learning. We continue to encourage the BEST values of being brave, engaged, sensible and thinking in everything that our tamariki do.

This also includes home as well as at school.

It is great to see more tamariki coming back to school after bouts of illness or covid.

We have sessions taking place next week to educate our tamariki on the harmful effects and legalities of tamariki vaping, our Public Health Nurse will be facilitating these.

SAY NO TO VAPING

Well done Ururangi (Room 2) for your wonderful inspiration shown at the Goldfields Art Exhibition this week.

A reminder that there is no school next Monday 26th September - acknowledgement of Queen Elizabeth's passing.

PS: Principal acknowledgement: outstanding artistic design and expression shown by Lachlan in Tupuānuku. I can't wait to see what else you come up with Lachlan!

Nga mihi nui
Whaea Debs
